

Content and Language Objectives

We will begin this course by focusing on content and language objectives for us as participants. We will also explore the ELPS cross-curricular standards, and look at how we might best support our students' needs.