

Differentiated Sentence Stems

Differentiated stems are scaffolds that enable students to participate in classroom discussions. They provide students with the support they need at various levels to feel confident in their responses both oral and written.