

Learning Strategies Focus

The learning strategies focus on developing approaches to language learning while the language domains focus on developing proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills.

Notice various verbs that are utilized in each of the language processes that highlight what students should be engaged in throughout the lesson.