

Linguistic Accommodations

---

As you begin to understand the proficiency levels of your students, you can then make decisions as to which instructional strategies will be most appropriate. Linguistically accommodating your instruction by utilizing tools and strategies will benefit your students and provide them with the support that is necessary for understanding. Using these tools on a consistent, routine basis is a means of providing that scaffolding that students may need throughout lesson delivery.