

Planning Instruction

---

As we plan our instruction using student expectations, we must ensure that the delivery of content is comprehensible and that we are purposeful in creating activities that support the development of academic language in our content area classrooms.

One of the ways that we do that is by understanding the differences between content and language objectives.