

Pre-teaching Vocabulary

The pre-teaching of key vocabulary is a critical element in the success of your students in the acquisition of both content and language.

The use of word walls is an instructional tool that promotes academic language development of academic vocabulary.

In order for your content to be comprehensible to your students, previewing key terminology will assist them as they begin to build background and make connections with essential concepts.