

Student Expectations Teaching Tip

There is a difference in the expectations for how students should engage in each of the language process skills; be mindful as to how students will use the process skills throughout their learning.