

Student Expectations

The student expectations listed in subsection (c) outline the skills necessary to master content and gain academic proficiency. Although the ELPS were designed with ELLs in mind, all students benefit from these expectations since they scaffold and support content area learning.