

Research Theme: Examples

- To develop students' ability to critically think about problems and communicate those ideas to their peers
- To develop students' writing skills and understanding of concepts through journaling
- To enhance students' technological skills to compete in a global economy
- To promote friendly, thoughtful discussions among students
- To foster self-motivation and a desire to learn in students