

Teaching Tip

---

The use of sentence stems will scaffold your students' learning and facilitate language production. This will allow students of varying proficiency levels to participate in content area discussion and increase their levels of academic language proficiency.