

Using the ELPS Framework

During this training module, you will be guided through an outline of the responsibilities of educators as they support ELLs through the implementation of the ELPS in their classrooms.

This training will help you improve outcomes for ELLs by:

- integrating ELPS cross-curricular student expectations into content area instruction, and
- aligning instruction for ELLs to the students' language proficiency levels.