

Vocabulary Teaching Tip

Reviewing vocabulary before the lesson will provide you with an understanding of what supports ELLs may need. Verifying student understanding of key vocabulary and identifying words needing explicit instruction will guide you as you begin the preparation and execution of your lesson, ensuring that necessary supports and scaffolding are made available.