

Art: High School
Reflection Activity

---

Think back to a time when you felt you were successful in fostering a creative environment for students. What were some of the attributes associated with that environment? What were the physical and emotional elements that helped create a supportive space for students?